

The Chris Difford and Lisa Fitzgibbon Song-Teller Series

Press release and information

Two singing songwriters, a passion for words and music, and an intimate venue is all that it takes to get Chris Difford and Lisa Fitzgibbon on the road together.

The Song-Teller Series presents one of the UK's most renowned songwriters, Chris Difford from Squeeze along side UK based, Australian Power Folkstress, Lisa Fitzgibbon in an intimate evening of original song.

Chris Difford is one-half of the legendary Difford/Tilbrook writing team and he has penned the lyrics for some of the best known power-pop songs of the 70's, 80's and 90's including Tempted, Up the Junction, Cool for Cats, and Black Coffee in Bed. Chris's debut solo album I didn't get where I am has set precedence for his solo career and his follow up live album/DVD South East-Side Story is a musical and visual depiction of Chris live at the Albany Theatre.

"...timelessly excellent music." – Mojo, UK

"...a proper songwriter singing proper songs." – Daily Express

Lisa Fitzgibbon grew up in the outback of Australia and her music is a mixture of her Australian past, her English/European present and her global future. She has written, recorded and produced four albums to date and is quickly building a reputation for her no nonsense, powerfully original and refreshingly personal style of Power Folk.

"When the world finds her she'll be ready" – Time Out

The Chris Difford and Lisa Fitzgibbon Song-Teller Series will be visiting Art Centers and selected venues across the country.
